

Group Contract

Rules:

1. Show respect to one another by being open to communication and suggestions
2. Don't try and do all the work yourself or not communicate. We should always be on the same page.
3. We should each keep each other accountable and make sure the work is evenly distributed.
4. Lets try not to leave each others messages delivered for more than a day or even better try to respond as soon as possible. In today's society every is always on their phone so i simple text like "ill get back to you later im busy right now" can go a long way

Communcation:

Discord.
